Coronation street party on Saturday 6th May

The coronation street party on Saturday 6th May on Bloomfield Road (between the Spring Grove pub and St John's Church) includes a great line up on the music stage, competitions (including the Great Grove Bake Off, fancy dress and a dog show), tug of war, games, a Pimms tent, plant show and more. Organised by local groups including the Spring Grove Residents' Association, the Fassett & Beaufort Road Residents, St John's School PSA, St. John's Church and the Spring Grove Pub. Please do come.

MUSIC STAGE

2:00 - DAN SEALEY

Formerly the bassist with Ocean Colour Scene and latterly a key part of the folk band Merrymouth, Dan Sealey has a hatful of fine original songs to lay before you. www.instagram.com/dan_sealey_music

2:45 - MARCH

March is the alter ego of London-based Kitty O'Neal, an impressive young singer-songwriter whose reflective songs blend a certain immediacy with real depth. <https://instagram.com/musicbymarch>

3:30 - ANDREW MAXWELL MORRIS

There is an enduring quality to the songs of Surrey-based troubadour and Glastonbury regular, Andrew Maxwell Morris. He appears today with two of his ace band members. www.andrewmaxwellmorris.com

4:15 - OUT OF THE RED

Out of the Red (the artists formerly known as Out of the Blue, Wild Street Party and... How Long Have You Got?) will lay down some popular tunes to get you properly movin' and a-groovin'.

5:00 - PLANB

Let's face it. They never really did call it a day, did they. Kingston covers band PlanB play us out with some anthemic stuff from yesteryear so hopefully you won't want to 'Sit Down' till the end.

Sincere thanks to Banquet Records for providing the PA, to Dave Meegan and Andrew Maxwell Morris for sound mixing and to The Spring Grove for sponsoring today's show.

Other local events
